One Day, Dr. Aslam was returning back to his home from his clinic. It was 11 O'clock at night. There was utter darkness in the way and he was driving his car slowly as the road was broken and muddy. Dr. Aslam was a famous doctor in the area and his hospital was equally popular. He lived in a small village 20 km away from the town where he ran his hospital. He usually came back home late at night.

Suddenly he saw huge stones in the way. He could not pass his car. He stopped his car and came down to see the situation. As he left the car, two armed men appeared from the darkness and spread their guns over him. They asked him to give them all that he had. The Dr. had a huge amount of money that he was bringing home. The money was in his car. There were some thousands of rupees in his coat's pockets too. The men went to his car to search for the money. Meanwhile, Dr. Aslam dropped the money he had in his pockets nearby in the dark. The robbers searched the car, took his money and his mobile phone while keeping him on gunpoint. They then searched the doctor's pocket and found nothing from them. They disappeared in the darkness.

Dr. Aslam had lost almost two lakh rupees. Then he lit up his car's lights and looked for the money he had dropped nearby.....
